

30th June &
1st July 2016

Whittlebury Hall Hotel
Northamptonshire

Speakers include:

• Stephen Collinson, Managing Director, Ryhurst Limited

Ryhurst is the private sector partner in three of the six NHS

Strategic Estates Partnerships working with Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust, Cheshire & Wirral Partnership NHS Foundation Trust and the Isle of Wight NHS Trust.

Stephen joined Ryhurst in 2008 to expand and develop Ryhurst's Strategic Estates Partnership (SEP) offering to the NHS. Stephen has considerable healthcare expertise gained in his former roles as an NHS Chief Executive with two NHS Trusts and in the independent and voluntary sectors.

• Amr Metwally Head of Architecture Division PMC, Hamad Medical Corporation

Qatar's healthcare market is booming and continues to grow as a result of increasing private sector engagement coupled with increasing health insurance coverage.

Amr is a leading expert on sustainable design practices in the Middle East and has been a key figure in the region for over a decade in developing sustainable and visionary healthcare projects. As well as talking about developments in the region Amr will discuss the opportunities and challenges that exist for UK companies and how they can access them.

• David Kershaw, Programme Director P21+, Balfour Beatty

David Kershaw is Programme Director for the P21+ Repeatable

Room initiative. During the course of developing these arrangements, federated BIM files have been produced for a design library that is accessible to future healthcare projects, with the aim of improving patient outcomes through evidence based design whilst reducing construction costs. The achievements, lessons learnt and thoughts for future improvement are all covered in this presentation.

• Simon Kydd Director, Head of Healthcare WSP Parson Brinkerhoff

Simon is the Head of Healthcare at WSP Parsons Brinkerhoff, a leading international professional services company, providing services to all aspects of the built and natural environments. He has spent the majority of his 20 year career in the healthcare sector, primarily in the work winning and solutions creation for PPP projects within the UK. Simon's strategic role allows him to stay at the forefront of the challenges facing NHS estates and the design and construction teams who provide the key to overcome them.
